$134,990

Description

Tough, versatile, and well-equipped for offshore adventures, the Haines Hunter 595 Offshore in two-tone gelcoat packs the performance and practicality fishos demand in a mid-size package. With a 5.95m hull built on the renowned 21° Performance Deadrise Vee (PDV) design, this boat handles open water confidently while delivering a stable and smooth ride. Matched to a Yamaha F175HP 4-stroke with hydraulic steering, electric start, and stainless SDS prop, it delivers strong performance and fuel efficiency whether you're trolling reefs or chasing swell.

This package sits on a 2400kg-rated Easytow tandem trailer with galvanised axles, stainless calipers, white guards with steps, and a mounted spare wheel for added peace of mind. The upgraded Garmin ECHOMAP UHD2 105SV with a large 12" display and GT56 transducer brings serious sonar and mapping power to your fingertips. With CHIRP and ClearVü scanning, plus Garmin Navionics+ for Australia and NZ, you're set for precise navigation and reliable fish-finding. Protection comes via a foldable canopy-style bimini with front and side clears and an integrated stainless rod rack, making it easy to switch between shade and action.

Onboard functionality is excellent, featuring twin boarding platforms, a factory-fitted removable bait board, high-pressure deck wash, plumbed live bait tank, and padded cockpit coamings. Comfort and convenience are covered too, with a seat box and tackle locker, electric underbunk toilet, stainless footrests, and grab rails. Power comes from an Australian-made marine battery with isolation switch, and full in-shore safety gear is supplied, including an EPIRB and anchor kit. With 12 months' rego for both boat and trailer and custom vinyl stickers included, the 595 Offshore is a premium-ready rig with the upgrades to back it.
