Description

Due to the nature of the Haines Hunter 725 Enclosed, we do not list prices or package online. Please contact the team to discuss your Haines Hunter 725 Enclosed.

The Haines Hunter 725 Enclosed is designed to set a new standard in offshore boating, combining innovative features with the trusted performance Haines Hunter is known for. Unlike other models, the 725 Enclosed offers unparalleled protection and comfort with its fully enclosed cabin, providing greater headroom and additional storage, making it perfect for extended trips. The enhanced cabin not only shields passengers from the elements but also ensures a quiet, comfortable ride, even in rough conditions.

One of the standout features of the 725 Enclosed is its enormous cockpit, which is designed to accommodate up to six large adult anglers with ease. This spacious area includes a standard side door, making it an ideal platform for offshore fishing and diving adventures. The cockpit also boasts increased freeboard, offering a safer and more stable environment when out at sea. Compared to other models, the 725 Enclosed delivers a more versatile and functional space for serious anglers and boating enthusiasts alike.

Built on Haines Hunter's renowned 21° Performance Deadrise Vee (PDV) hull, the 725 Enclosed is engineered to handle challenging offshore conditions with superior stability and control. This model also includes all the modern conveniences and safety features you expect, setting it apart from its peers. Whether you're battling big fish offshore or cruising in comfort, the Haines Hunter 725 Enclosed offers a premium boating experience that combines innovation, performance, and safety.
